DEA to Welcome Len Bias' Mom for Candlelight Vigil

On Thursday, June 8, DEA will take part in a candlelight vigil to remember those who have died from drugs. Dr. Lonise Bias will join other parents in sharing her story, twenty years after the cocaine-related death of her son, Len, at the first annual national vigil remembering those lost to drugs. Len Bias, a Maryland basketball player, died in 1986 just two days after being the second overall selection in the NBA draft. More

One of the parents who will share her story will be Ginger Katz. Ginger's 20-year-old son Ian died of a heroin overdose in 1996. Click here to read a DEA interview with Mrs. Katz reflecting on her son's lost promise.

Another mother, Francine Haight, lost her son Ryan to an overdose of prescription drugs in 2001. Read her story here.

Registration for DEA's Vigil for Lost Promise ends May 15. Click here to read more about the event.
